Mustang Liniment
MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT is said to cure Old Sores, Caked Breasts and all Inflammation.

"I feel Splendid!"

SAID a girl of twenty summers.
"I don't feel as if I ever had an ache or pain and I just believe I could run ten miles and never tire." And yet headaches, backaches, stomach-aches, swellings, sores, etc., troubled her before she used Dr. Guy's. This remedy restored her to perfect health, as was indicated by her clear complexion, white, smooth skin and bright eyes. It will relieve all ailments peculiar to women, for by purifying the blood thoroughly, it gives strength and health to every weak part. Many who long suffered from lame back, aching joints, urinary weakness, disordered digestion, sleeplessness, etc., after doctoring in vain with various nostrums and being nearly frightened to death by their alarming advertisements, sensibly, but with little hope, began using Dr. Guy's remedy, and were agreeably surprised to find themselves quickly restored to health and strength.

A DEEP-SEATED, HOLLOW COUGH is an indication of consumption.
Don't be persuaded to believe such a cough owes its origin to other causes than weak and decaying lungs, and then make the mistake of doctoring kidneys and liver, thus delaying a possibility of recovery.
A nutritive diet is essential in effecting a cure; also the use of Dr.
Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry to soothe and heal the lungs and the bronchial tubes, to diminish the tendency to cough, to check further decay, and to invigorate the whole pulmonary system. It has cured and will cure just in proportion to the number of persons who use it.

Guy's Sarsaparilla and Wistar's Balsam sold in Hillsboro by Seybert & Co. and W. B.
Smith & Co.

HOW IT WORKED.
"Good morning, Jack! why I haven't seen you for a month past. What in the world is the matter with you? You seemed to have renewed your youth."
"Well, Phil, I have. Don't you remember the last time I saw you, how miserable I was?
Sick and blue, and in that sort of mood a man get sometimes when he feels the most miserable thing in life is to go straight to the doctor."
"Not so bad as that, I hope; at all events you didn't get that way, you are looking far too happy and hearty."
"Thank goodness, no! rather, thank Vinegar Bitters. Do you remember that day I saw you last, when you recommended that medicine to me so persistently, and I was first vexed and then half convinced?"
"I remember it perfectly, and you needn't say another word upon the subject; your looks tell me you took the medicine."
"No doubt of it: everybody remarks upon my improved looks and temper; but I must really tell you about it. I got the old style, as you recommended, and didn't mind the bitter taste at all. I finished the bottle in about two weeks, and was greatly improved, so much so that I determined to change off and try the new style."
"Well, how did you like it?"
"You told me your wife preferred the new style, I believe; well, I must say I agree with her. I like the old style very much, but the new is the finer, smoother, more expensive preparation."
"I believe it is; in fact, I have heard so, and I wonder the McDonald Drug Company sell it for the same price they do the old style, because it is really a very costly preparation."
"Well, that doesn't concern us. Who was it said that people fancied themselves plums sometimes when they were only bilious? No matter: I was only going to say that I believe people often seem wicked when it is only their liver, or their stomach, or some other cankerous organ of the body so out of order they couldn't be good if they tried."
"And if all the miserable dyspeptics and victims of biliousness, headache and the thousand and one ills that flesh is heir to would only take Vinagar Bitters, what a happy world this would be!"
"I should recommend the new style."
"I never go back on the old style."
"Well, they can't pay their money and take their choice, for both kinds work admirably." Only Temperance Bitters Known.

John Challenges Jack.
New York, Dec. 7.—John L. Sullivan and his backer, Charles Johnson, of Brooklyn, went to the Clipper office to meet Kilrain, or his representative, for the purpose of making a match to a finish. R. K.
Fox, Kilrain's backer, had been notified in writing and verbally to be present, but the written notification was returned with the words, "No answer." Sullivan's sponsor drew and deposited with the Clipper a check for $5,000, and after waiting two hours for some one of the Kilrain interest, a challenge was written and deposited with the check for $5,000.

Yellow Jack Knocked Out.
JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Dec. 7.—Official bulletin: No new cases or deaths. There was a heavy frost this morning, and the general belief is that no more will be heard of yellow fever, at least in the city.
Indications point to the arrival here of from 5,000 to 6,000 people on December 15.

Brace of Colored Murderers Hanged.
COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 7.—Sam Phifer and Adolphus Wheeler, the colored murderers, were executed at Yorkville to-day. Both confessed their crimes on the gallows, and acknowledged the justice of the sentence.

Slight Shock in Tennessee.
KNOXVILLE, TENN., Dec. 7.—A light earthquake shock passed over East Tennessee at twenty minutes past six o'clock last night. The shake was perceptible to a number of people in Knoxville.

Cherokee Strip Lease.
DENVER COLO., Dec. 7.—The Cherokee Cattle and Live Stock Association has signed a lease of a portion of the Cherokee strip they use at $200,000 per year for five years.

Half a Million for the Poor.
NEW YORK, Dec. 7.—By the will of Rebecca E. Robertson, which was offered for probate to-day, the residue of her estate, after various minor bequests, is given to establish a home for enabling poor families to have a brief summer outing free of expense. The bequest amounts to a half million dollars.

Women Workers Strike.
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 7.—About one-third of the women and girls in George Branson's American Knitting Mills went out on a strike to-day against a proposed change in the wages on a certain class of stockings made on knitting machines.

MINT MONEY FOUND.

Wrapped in an Old Quilt and Hid in a Trunk.

Fourteen Hundred Dollars of Missing Government Funds Traced to Their Hiding Place.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Dec. 7.—Several weeks ago a heavy shipment of silver was made from the New Orleans Mint to the Treasury Department at Washington.
When the boxes were opened by the Treasury officials it was discovered that 1,400 silver dollars had been abstracted and bags of shot substituted. The robbery was communicated to the authorities of the mint and the Southern Express Company, and Mr. H. C. Fisher, superintendent at New Orleans on the 12th of November. He traced the silver from the mint to the time it was placed on the train at New Orleans. His labors have been crowned with success, the robber having been discovered and the missing money found in a trunk which had been checked to Bowling Green, Ky.
When Mr. Fisher entered upon the investigation he had forwarded to him the bags of shot that had been placed in the box.
He went through the shot and found an advertisement showing that the shot had been made in October by Tatham Bros., of New York. Correspondence with Tatham Bros. developed the fact that they had made only two shipments of October shot to the South. With this clue Mr. Fisher clearly ascertained who obtained the shot. The evidence was so conclusive that the robber, knowing his guilt would shortly be fully established, wrote Mr. Fisher, and inclosing the check for the trunk, told him that if he would take the check to Bowling Green, get the trunk and open it he would discover the missing money. Mr. Fisher met the man, who made a full confession. The trunk, which was lying in the railroad office at Bowling Green, was examined, and wrapped up in a bed-quilt was found the fourteen hundred silver dollars. Mr. Fisher, in declining to give the name of the guilty man, said he was not actuated by a desire to save the reputation of the individual in question, but did not wish to blast the lives of innocent women and children. The robber, he said had committed the theft under circumstances that would excite the sympathy of a stoic, and had already suffered as much as if he had been consigned to his prison and his name given to the world. Mr. Fisher telegraphed to Mr. Montague, the Superintendent of the Mint, that the money had been recovered, and said that no person connected with the Mint was in any way concerned in the robbery.

CRANK CALLS ON CLEVELAND
To Demand a Surrender of the Executive Office.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—During the past two or three days officials at the White House have been annoyed by a man, evidently a "crank," who has paid frequent visits there for the purpose of seeing the President. He is about forty-five years old and well dressed, and presents the appearance of a man in good circumstances.
Early in the morning and late in the evening he appeared, to see the President on important business. Sergeant Johnson warned him to keep away, under a threat of arrest. He returned to the White House before noon to-day and Officer Cunningham placed him under arrest. He was taken to the Sanitary Office, where he was questioned by Sanitary Officer Frank.
He gave his name as G. W. Jameson, and said he was from Hartsville, Bucks County, Pa. "There was an election last month," remarked the stranger. "I believe there was," said the sanitary officer.
"Well," said Jameson, "there is a mistake as to the man who was elected. Cleveland and another man ran. Cleveland was defeated, but the other man was not elected."
"Who was?" asked the officer. "I was," he answered. "And I came here to see that President Cleveland turns the office over to me and not to the other man." He was taken to the Third Precinct Station, where he will be examined as to his mental condition.

Federation of Railroad Employees.
PITTSBURGH, PA., Dec. 6.—A movement is on foot to organize a federation of all railroad employees in the United States, excepting conductors, and a meeting looking to that end will be held in this city early in January. The unions will embrace the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers, Firemen, Brakemen, Switchmen and Yardmen, and it is claimed they will have a membership of 100,000. Secret meetings have been held at Columbus and Chicago, and the plan of federation is now in the hands of the grand chiefs of all the organizations enumerated.

Petroleum vs. Coal.
FINDLAY, O., Dec. 6.—Yesterday an engine on the Toledo, Columbus & Southern railroad drew a passenger train from Toledo to this city on fuel furnished by crude petroleum. The trial was such a success that President Brown announces that he will have all his engines arranged for the use of oil and do away with coal.

Hog-Packers' Trust.
ST. LOUIS, Dec. 6.—A rumor has gained currency here that the Chicago hog-packers were at work forming a master trust to embrace the leading packers of Chicago, St. Louis, St. Paul, Des Moines, Omaha, Sioux City, Kansas City and Cincinnati.

Maine's Official Vote.
AUGUSTA, ME., Dec. 6.—The official vote of the State of Maine is as follows: Harrison, 73,734; Cleveland, 50,481; Fisk, 2,001; Streeter, 1,344; scattering, 16. Total vote, 128,566. Plurality, 23,253.

Farmers Co-Operating.
SPRINGFIELD, Dec. 6.—The farmers of Shelby County, Ill., have formed a cooperative league, opened a store, and will buy their own goods at wholesale and ship their own produce.

Fell Over a Precipice.
PARKERSBURG, Dec. 6.—Edward Tully fell over a precipice near his home in Kanawha County, West Virginia, and was killed. His age was fifty-five.

Reward for an Incendiary.
DETROIT, MICH., Dec. 6.—The Calumet and Hecla mines to-day advertised a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest of the incendiary who started the fire in No. 8 shaft of the Calumet branch Thanksgiving night. The fire in the mine has grown worse.

Catholics May Vote.
ROME, Dec. 6.—The Vatican notifies former sovereigns of Italian States that the Pope can no longer prevent Catholics from taking part in elections. At a conference of the Sacred College, at which the Pope presided, it was decided to allow Catholics entire liberty of action.

TUSSEL WITH WILDCATS.

They Make a Feroceous Assault on a Farm Hand, Who Finally Dispatches Them With a Club.

ANDERSON, IND., Dec. 6.—Last evening John Martin, a farm hand, residing in the extreme northern part of the county, had a terrific tussle with a pair of wildcats. It was in the dusk of the evening, and Martin was passing through a narrow strip of timber, when all of a sudden he was startled by a shrill scream, and a catamount sprang from a low clump of bushes into the middle of the road in front of him.
The animal was unusually large and ferocious. Martin saw at once that there was to be a fight to a finish, and there was a mortal dread as to what the result might be. There was no time to be lost, for the cat was there for business. She sprang at the man's throat, but received a whack with his walkingstick which laid her on her back. Just at this juncture the male cat appeared on the scene. Before Martin could recover his guard the male caught him by the shoulder as it leaped and raked him, tearing a section of his coat and about six inches of skin and flesh into ribbons. Fortunately the cat missed its calculations as the man swung about with the weight of his blow upon the first one. As it was, the wound was very painful. By this time the male had got on its feet again, and both cats prepared to spring at once. Martin, seeing that the affair was getting serious, backed up against a tree and swallowed their onslaught. He didn't have long to wait, as the male smiling with rage, made a leap at his throat, while the female crept to one side, as if to flank him. This fact saved the man, as it gave him time to relieve the biggest one, which he skillfully did by jumping to the right and striking it as it struck the tree where he had just stood. The blow knocked it senseless. The female made a flying leap, but another quick movement allowed her to strike the base of the tree, where the man had stood. He gave it one hard blow on the side, but slipped and fell, when the cat buried her teeth and claws in his legs. It was now a rolling, tumbling fight for a very brief period, but the man's good luck did not desert him, as he was fortunate enough to hit the animal on the back, breaking its spine. As soon as he could free himself from her embrace he ran to the male, which was just getting on its feet, and hit it two or three terrible blows, which killed it. Both cats were now dead, but the man was so badly torn and exhausted that he had great difficulty in making his way to the residence of the nearest neighbor, where he was put to bed.
He is still laid up from the effects of his injuries, and is likely to be for some time to come.

LASHED TO THE PUMPS.

Over a Week of Suffering by Shipwrecked Sailors—The Ship Goes Down Two Hours After Their Rescue.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 6.—This morning the schooner James A. Garfield arrived from Nassau with the shipwrecked crew of seven men of the schooner Albert H. Cross, of Philadelphia and Newburyport, Mass.
The Cross left Charleston November 15, bound to Petersburg, Va., with 495 tons of phosphate rock. On November 17 they encountered a heavy gale, which lasted for several days. On the 21st she sprang a leak. The men got to the pump, but the waves were rushing over to the decks, which they swept clean. The men were lashed to the pumps, and were in that position until November 30, when they were rescued by the Garfield. The Cross sank in latitude 33 degrees 45 minutes, longitude 73 degrees 40 minutes, two hours after her crew had been taken off.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

Second Session.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—SENATE.—The Senate was called to order at 10 o'clock to-day. After prayer by Chaplain Butler, a few moments were spent in greeting among the Senators, and then Senator Sherman offered the usual resolution that the Secretary notify the House that the Senate is ready to proceed to business. The resolution was adopted, as was also one offered by Senator Morrill, for the appointment of a committee to notify the President that the Senate is ready to receive any communication that he may have to make. At 12:47 a recess was had until 1:30. The President's message was then sent in and read. The reading of the message occupied one hour and twenty minutes. After unimportant business, the Senate adjourned until 10 o'clock to-morrow.

HOUSE.—At precisely 10 o'clock the fall of the gavel stilled the tumult in the hall, and silence reigned while Mr. Milburn, the Chaplain, offered prayer. The roll of members was then called, which developed the presence of 296 members. By resolution the Senate and President were notified that the House was ready to proceed with business. After a recess of an hour the President's annual message was presented and read. When at 3:15 the reading was completed, Mr. Mills offered a resolution, which was agreed to, referring the message to the committee of the whole and providing for its printing. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—SENATE.—Various annual reports were submitted and appropriations referred. A number of bills were introduced, including one for the construction of steel arms and cruisers to be armed with dynamite guns.
A motion to proceed to the consideration of the Union Pacific bill was objected to. Mr. Allison called up the tariff bill, but the Democratic Senators not being ready with their amendments to the tobacco schedule it was postponed until to-morrow. At 12:35 p. m. the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The annual reports were submitted and referred. A resolution was offered to investigate certain real estate purchases for the District. Referred to Committee on Rules. A petition of citizens of North Dakota was presented for the admission of the Territories. A bill to erect a monument to Major General Henry Knox at Thomaston, Me., provoked the opposition of Kilgore (Tex.), Bland (Mo.), Breckinridge (Ky.), and McMillin (Tenn.). The point of no quorum was raised and a call of the House ordered. Filibustering was continued until 5 p. m., when the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—SENATE.—A number of resolutions were introduced and referred.
The Senate tariff bill was taken up as a substitute for the Mills bill. On a motion to lay the substitute on the table, the vote stood—yeas 19, nays 34, a strict party vote. A number of amendments offered by Democrats were voted down. The Union Pacific settlement bill was made a special order for Wednesday next.
After disposing of 130 pages the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—A number of bills and resolutions were introduced. Unanimous consent was asked for the consideration of the "omnibus bill" for the admission of the Territories, but objection was made. The eight-hour law claims bill was taken over the morning hour. The bill to quiet the title of Des Moines river land settlements was considered and passed. The direct tax bill was made a special order for Thursday, Saturday and Tuesday next, and at 5 p. m. the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—SENATE.—Certificates of Presidential Electors in Kansas were presented and referred to the Privileges and Elections Committee. A number of bills were re-introduced. The tariff consideration was resumed, beginning with the earthenware schedule and continuing through the metals. Butler, of North Carolina, offered a joint resolution proposing a constitutional amendment fixing the Presidential term at six years. At 3:35 p. m. the Senate adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.—The resignation of Perry Belmont, of New York, was announced. The usual resolution for the distribution of the President's message to the appropriate committee, was reported and adopted. The direct tax bill was made a special order for to-day, Tuesday and Wednesday. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was reported, and at 3:30 p. m. the House adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7.—SENATE.—Not in session.

HOUSE.—No quorum. No business of importance transacted.

The sum of $30,000 has been realized at the first day's sale of the Cincinnati Exposition buildings.

elected president of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati Railway Railroad Company.

Tell body of Frank P., alias "Lightning" Dickinson, was found under a Chicago sidewalk in an advanced stage of decomposition. The discovery clears up the mystery of the murder of Charles Gunderson in August at the same spot. Dickinson, after murdering Gunderson, put his body under the sidewalk, and, crawling in beside it, stabbed himself. When Gunderson's body was found Dickinson's was not noticed.
